Modern Oracles.

Ordinary people are not expected to deliver judgment or even to pronounce an opinion on subjects of which they know nothing. In such cases the rule of common sense suggests the advice which indeed is not always taken, that they should say nothing. But there have always existed in the world some beings, either abstract or concrete, who are not regarded as ordinary people, and who are not allowed, whatever may be their inclination, to shelter themselves behind the fortress of silence. But when the real interest of the combined clamor of a sufficient number of what is called the public, has been excited upon any question, important or ephemeral, a great journal is obliged to speak, and to speak in the only voice with which nature has provided it; there must be a leading article, which somebody must be found to write. The necessity of utterance being thus established, or rather, forced upon the daily press by the demand of an uninstructed crowd for some authoritative supply of wisdom the only question remaining open for consideration is the form which the article shall assume. The convenient device known as "the previous question" is not available; the public has not the slightest idea what "the previous question" means; it puts a plain question in a plain way and it expects a plain answer; but, not being very clear as to what the question actually is, it is often completely satisfied with high-sounding generalizations clothed in sufficiently long words. Usually, therefore a practised writer will avail himself of the tried resources of the hypothetical syllogism, if he has no distinct acquaintance with the subject in hand; while, if he knows nothing at all about it, he will deal impartially and exhaustively with the heap of published and unpublished matter before him. By the latter method, perhaps, he will most completely satisfy the cravings of his readers for talk. The former method is the most advantageous in dealing with correspondents themselves. It is in our recollection that an experienced senior partner in a house of business once passed over to the desk of a junior, with a request for his opinion, a letter written in answer to the complaints of a worthy but not very clear-headed correspondent. The junior said the letter was very long and very courteous, but that he did not quite catch its meaning. "Then it will do," was the reply; which was completely justified by the result.—Saturday Review.

V. & T. Railroad Extension.

A Short and Cheap Working Route

Discovered to Aurora and Bodie.

I. E. James and C. L. Anderson, who have been surveying the route for the proposed railroad from the Mound House, on the Virginia and Truckee Railroad, to Aurora and Bodie, have found a much more practical and lighter grade route than was expected. The distance from the Mound House to Fort Churchill is 26 miles, and to the foot of Campbell's Pass, on the east side of Mason Valley, 20 miles. Around to the head of Walker Lake, from Campbell's Pass, they have not surveyed yet, but the estimated distance is 15 miles, and from that point to Aurora the distance is about 60 miles. The surveyors think that at the head of Walker Lake a terminus can be made and the road constructed to that place in a short time. At this point it is thought that the travel and freight for Bodie, Aurora, Columbus, Belleville, and all the southern portion of that country will concentrate. At the head of Walker Lake it will tap an immense section of country, rich not only in agricultural products, but also in minerals, and it will also be the outlet for all the travel from this point to Belleville, Aurora, Bodie and the adjoining country. Vegetables and farm produce can then be brought into Virginia City fresh every morning, and the cost will be greatly diminished. The building of this railroad would add immensely to the value of the farming lands of Mason Valley, and would also build up a thriving little town at or near the head of Walker Lake. We hope its construction may be undertaken at once, as in the building it would give employment to the host of idle men of the Comstock range. Not only would there be work for the common laborers, but also for carpenters and mechanics of other trades in the erection of bridges and the buildings that would be required at various points.—Enterprise.

The discussion of the school question at the Lyceum Tuesday evening was animated and interesting. Messrs. Hoole, Leeper and Comstock advocated the proposed tax. Messrs. Beck and Hatch very strongly opposed it. The same question will be debated again next Tuesday evening. The woman's rights question was decided in the affirmative.

Governor of Utah.

We had the pleasure of meeting lately with Gen. P. E. Connor, who is the prospective Governor of Utah. The gentleman is now sojourning in San Francisco, awaiting the action of the Executive, and we took occasion to get the gentleman's views upon the main features of Utah life. We found the General to be one of the quiet sort who are not troubled by honest questions, and yet never volunteer information in regard to themselves or their affairs. The General has a good record with the Union army, and although well along in years, still bears himself upright like the soldier who has seen field service.

We should like to see General Connor nominated to succeed Emery in Utah, for in our opinion, they need a soldierly man for Governor. Heretofore it has been the custom to send some man to Utah who had no opinion or did not dare to defend one. The result has been an inefficient administration of affairs, and a growth of polygamous evils and Mormon insolence which are to-day a shame and an affront to our nation, and the officers who are appointed by government to control the affairs of Utah. We do not, of course, expect an immediate change when Gen. Connor is appointed, but we have reason to believe that he possesses ideas which can not agree with practices which defy the law of our land. We believe that a vigorous defense of the right will punish the wrong-doers and that Utah has never enjoyed the presence of an officer who sought honestly to administer the common laws. If one such ever found his way into Utah his reign was short, and his successor was carefully selected to undo his work.

Gen. Connor is abundantly vouchered for as a man of calibre, one who loves the laws of his country, and will see them respected. He has carried the sword when strife was hottest and we doubt not that in time of peace he will exert mind and strength for the vindication of certain laws which have been too long outraged. We hope to hear that the next Governor of Utah is to be General P. E. Connor.

A Washington date of the 3d says: In the Senate debate on the funding bill yesterday, Edmunds used the following significant and threatening language, the more so when it is considered that he is Chairman of the Judiciary Committee, and always speaks by the card: "I have, in respect to these very companies, seen officers of the companies in this very Senate Chamber, on the day a bill was to be up, distributing their passes with an ostentatious impudence that was amazing. I hope it did not affect any Senator. I suppose it did not. We shall find out by and by after an inquiry, if the two Houses are willing to direct it, and perhaps the present Government Directors may be able to look after it. How much money has been paid by these companies to protect their rights, as they call it, at this session of Congress—not to any Senator or Representative in Congress?"

England and Turkey are reported on more friendly terms than heretofore, and rumors prevail of an alliance between these two powers and Austria. Should such a coalition be formed, the treaty of San Stefano will not stand. In the meantime the preparations for war go on with great activity.

As yet no will of the late Mark Hopkins has been found, although it is said that one was executed. The estate is estimated at $15,000,000 and the only heirs are his wife and adopted son.

The scientists say that the use of beans as an exclusive article of diet will cure drunkenness. This is probably the reason why it costs so much to intoxicate a Bostonian.

C. A. Wetmore has been commissioned by the California State Vinicultural Association to represent the American native wine interest at the Paris Exposition.

Two Englishmen are trying to purchase 20,000 horses in Chicago ostensibly for horse car service in England and Scotland.

Camp McDermott.

The Silver State advocates the proposal of transferring the Indian to the care of the war department. That paper says that there has lately been an attempt to abolish Camp's Harney and McDermott, with the purpose of removing the officers to a distance so that it would be impossible for the military to interfere in any way with the Indian Agent, and he may in this manner be allowed to gratify his own ideas in regard to the administration of his affairs monetary and social. We believe that Lo ought to be turned over to the war department and that if that won't give the good man away. The Silver State says, that camp is situated in Northern Nevada, near the Oregon and Idaho line, on the route between the railroad and Eastern Oregon and Western Idaho. It is in the center of the Indian country, infested by bands of Bannocks and Piutes. It affords protection to the headmen whose cattle fatten in the extensive ranges of Quin and King's rivers, the Owyhee and Stein Mountains, and the prospectors who penetrate its mountain fastnesses in search of mines. It is a center from which troops can be marched at any season of the year to quell any outbreak that may occur among the several tribes in Northern Nevada, Eastern Oregon or Idaho, and instead of being abandoned at the instigation of Indian Agents, its garrison ought to be increased and the post made a supply depot for the northern country. Petitions setting forth the facts relating to the importance of the post, and the necessity of maintaining and strengthening it, are now being circulated, and will be forwarded immediately to Senator Jones, with the request that he present them to the War Department and use his influence to counteract the schemes of the Indian Agents.

On Saturday night the Railroad men in front of Moody's were startled by strange and loud noises coming apparently from the inside of a freight car. On enquiring the cause it was found out that two tramps were locked up inside one of the cars. After some difficulty the seals of the car were broken, and the fellows brought out. They said they had ridden all the way from Winnemucca without anything to eat and couldn't stand it any longer. They gave the names of J. Meyers and Frank Green. They were taken in charge by Trainmaster Watson and Jake Cross, who locked them up. The train moved west before the officers could have time to examine the car, so a telegram was sent below to ascertain if anything was missing from the car, and an answer was received that everything was all O. K., so their tramps were set at liberty.—Truckee Republican.

The House Committee on Public Lands has agreed to recommend the passage of a bill introduced by Representative Page, providing for the sale of timber lands in California, Oregon and Washington Territory, and for the discontinuance of the prosecutions lately commenced against various parties for violation of Section 2461 of the Revised Statutes, on condition that they pay into Court a penalty of $2 50 for every acre from which they have removed timber. The general features of the bill are the same as that introduced by Sargent in the Senate last week.

Concert and Drama.

The entertainment given last evening at Smith's Academy of Music was well attended and passed off very pleasantly. The instrumental duet by the Misses Tallman satisfactorily exhibited the skill of the lady performers.

Miss Minnie Loomis amused the audience by her pleasant little song, "Folks of Fashion."

The "Silent Sell" took well and might be repeated with original variations.

The solos by Miss Lola Cross and Miss Mary Tallman were very fine. These ladies should each give one of their selections this evening.

"Carlton's Three Lovers" can be improved upon, although as presented it was the occasion of much laughter. Marsh should have been suspended overhead.

The play of the "Coming Woman" was well presented for that piece. We must say, however, that the ladies bore their parts much better than the gentlemen. Mr. Maxson did not make a very good lover. Miss Victoria Wigfall looked very pretty, and by the part which it was hers to act, Carberry had some splendid opportunities to show his role to great advantage. We must say, however, that the play selected is a poor one and does not in itself afford but little opportunity for any exhibition of latent stage talent. Good actors, however, cannot make a poor play amount to much. We believe the players could have cut down some parts and changed and enlarged others in this piece and thus greatly improved it and its presentation. This evening the entertainment will be still better. The programme will be changed almost entirely. Last evening all were pleased and witnessed a satisfactory performance. Let our friends of the Methodist Church have a full house to-night.

"THAT INJUSTICE BUSINESS."—The Journal accuses us of doing an injustice to Judge Wright, but we cannot see wherein he shows that we have done that official the least injustice. We may have done so, but will be glad to correct any wrong which we may have committed. We certainly did not say that in continuing the case of Harrington he did that which he should not have done. In fact we can not see anyway in which he could have done otherwise. But it does look a little strange that a murder case should be set for trial here on Monday, and for the next day, a case also claiming his presence, should be called for trial in Carson. Does it not appear, Mr. Powning, that the Judge knew before hand that the Harrington case would be continued? If we mistake facts we desire correction, for it is not our purpose to wrong any one.

GOOD MINE INDICATIONS.—From Mr. J. D. Shaw we learn that the Mountain King and McClelland mining companies are sinking a combination shaft between their respective claims. The vein on top is 21 feet wide and improves in character as the shaft is carried down. Their shaft is now down but 20 feet. In the Mountain King mine, lower down the hill, a 250 foot tunnel was run and an incline a shaft sunk a depth of 120 feet. Much good ore was encountered, and some was taken out which assayed nearly $1,000 to the ton. This ledge, as Mr. Shaw believes, is, however, but a spur of the main ledge. This opinion is confirmed by a 70-foot drift from the 120-foot level of the above incline. We have a sample of this ore in our cabinet which will probably assay from $500 to $800 to the ton. The company found their richest ore in pockets.

HOUSE CLEANING.—The house cleaning season is upon us. The beloved husband cometh home to slim meals and hasty lunches. The busy housewife is not in the best humor, and the boys who were told to take up and beat the carpet, etc., slip off to fish. The leige lord doth feel like providing a back yard matinee for their benefit in consequence thereof, and the sweet little children, who for a week or two are much neglected that the house may be thoroughly cleaned, and who are even slighted of those little kindnesses from the parental sire, do not run to lip his return "or climb his knee the envied kiss to share."

COUNTY TAX.—The State and county tax of Washoe county is two cents on the dollar. The rate of taxation in Storey county is 2 cents; Ormsby county, 2.5 cents; Eureka county, 2 cents; White Pine county, 3 1/2 cents; Lyon county, 2.7 cents.

Jettings.

There is to be a new stage route from the Southern Pacific to the Yosemite.

H. A. Waldo has the chills and fever, and that here in Reno. He should be ashamed of himself.

Mrs. Jacob Prescott returned from San Francisco this morning. Good news for the ladies.

By mistake Treasurer Norton's report was not published yesterday. It appears in to-day's issue.

Con. Virginia took a benefit Tuesday night, and sent down forty-two bars of bullion, valued at $158,623 07.

The Truckee has raised about six inches in the past forty-eight hours. We intended to predict a thaw last week.

Fred Wetherill has returned from his western visit and avows his intention to visit Paris. Hope he may, and enjoy it.

The Gas Company are building a brick addition to their gas works. This new department will be used as a purifying room.

To-day is one of the Chinese religious holidays. As one Celestial said pointing upward, "Josh day, picnic, heap eat licee and pig."

Examination of applicants for teacher's certificates will be held tomorrow and next day at the public school house.

John Harwood, a former employee of Manning & Duck, and a brother to Mrs. Ellows, once a resident of Reno, died to-day in Sacramento.

The big ditch for the Water Company it seems will be constructed after all. The survey is now being made by Mr. A. J. Hatch.

M. C. Lake, Jas. H. Kinkead, W. S. Bailey, J. F. Moody, Jacob McKissick, and a lot more meat shippers are in San Francisco. A meeting of the Association will be held to-day.

During the past quarter Sheriff Lamb received $2,112 21; Constable Barlow, $539 65; Auditor Williams, $539 70; Justice Richardson, $412 75; Roger Power, Justice at Washoe, 50 cents.

Tuesday afternoon at the fire a number of persons drove light wagons over the fire hose. Drivers might get themselves into serious trouble by so doing, and, aside from this, it might occasion the loss of many hundreds of dollars' worth of property.

Mrs. J. Prescott has an item of interest to the ladies. It will be found in another column and speaks for itself. We commend its perusal to the ladies and Mrs. Prescott's millinery articles to their inspection and purchase.

If one would spend a few weeks at a hotel where would he go to a more pleasantly located spot than that of the Lake House. This hotel is kept in good style, has an admirable location and is removed from the noise and confusion incident to a more central situation. See ad. elsewhere.

We regret to learn that Miss Emma Crocker has had another severe hemorrhage of the lungs. She is now doing well. Pulmonic and febrile diseases would almost be unknown in this valley were there many pine and eucalyptus trees planted here and there in the town and county. All kinds of trees are conducive to health.

Treasurer's Report.

To the Honorable Board of County Commissioners of Washoe County, Nev.: GENTLEMEN—Below I submit to you my report for the quarter ending on this date:

Cash on hand Jan. 1, 1878	$28,983 06
Receipts for the quarter	6,918 78
Total	$35,901 84
Warrants paid during quarter	19,857 10
Balance on hand	$16,044 74

Very respectfully, yours,

B. B. NORTON, Treasurer.

By C. T. BENDER, Deputy.

A LITTLE THING.—We saw a little boy standing on the bridge just before noon intently gazing into the river below. As we approached he said: "An item for your paper if you want it. I lost my hat; the wind blew it into the river." And then after a moment's hesitation, he said: "Well, I've got a quarter and papa will give me enough more to get a new one." But still he looked to see if the thing wouldn't rise again, and then slowly walked away, thinking perhaps, how he should break the news to the old folks at home. A little thing, but you were once a boy and have had similar experiences.

RETURNED.—Mrs. Julia J. Prescott has just returned from San Francisco, after a careful inspection of all the latest novelties in the line of fancy goods and millinery. Mrs. Prescott congratulates herself that her labors to supply the ladies of Reno and vicinity with the latest styles have been appreciated, and her recent visit of four weeks to the city of San Francisco has been purposely prolonged that she might study and select the exquisite Spring and Summer styles which she now offers to her patrons. Her prices are lower than ever, to suit the hard times, and the goods are now displayed at her establishment, on Commercial Row. The ladies should call.
